What's been happening in the month of July?

- Part 1 building blocks to Brisbane was a success
- Olympic qualification secured from the Australian National Team
- Great turn out to our Belmont Oasis Come and Try Day
- Congratulations to our WA junior athletes on a great training camp

Building Blocks to Brisbane Workshop

Participants aged 13 years and under enjoyed a fun workshop designed to give athletes the skills needed for competitive success in Artistic Swimming.

Special thank you to our High Performance Committee, especially our coaches Amie Thompson and Rose Stackpole for organising and providing the coaching expertise for this workshop.

World Aquatic Championship Results

Congratulations are in order for the Australian Senior National Team on their fantastic achievement! They have secured qualification for the Olympics in both the team and duet events. This remarkable accomplishment was made possible by winning the Oceania Swimming Association quota place so the team will now proudly represent the Australian Olympic Team in Paris 2024.

Furthermore, they also qualified for both team finals at the World Championships, marking a significant milestone for Australian Artistic swimming. Making it into both finals is a first for Australian. Our last qualification for a final at Worlds was in 2007 when we qualified for one team final. ASWA is very proud of our WA coach Nawal Kurson and the WA athletes .Hannah Burkhill, Natalia Caloiero, Alessandra Ho and Marnie Kennedy who are members of this team.

Belmont Oasis Come & Try

The Come & Try at Belmont Oasis was very unique. It was the first time that we had more boys than girls attending to an event as such, and some of the participants not speaking English as their first language. Luckily, our coaching group as a team could speak over 5 different languages and the event was a great success.

Team Australia Junior Team Camp

Team Australia had a marvellous second camp of the season at the Australian Institute of Sport between the 8-16th of July. Special mention to our amazing WA coach Alexandra Del Sorbo who is the assistance coach for this up and coming team. The athletes successfully completed the training camp with all routines for the season complete, Junior Technical Team, Junior Free team and Junior Acrobatic Team.

ASWA is very proud of our WA athletes Bianca Chira, Jessica Galt, Amelie Carle, Adelle Griffiths and Lili Kapusik.
