

Roslyn Carbon

Roslyn has been involved in Synchro for more than fifteen years, since her daughter Alexandra took up the sport at her school in the UK. Roslyn and husband Brian helped set up SynchroWA when the family moved home to Perth in 2009. They have worked in sport throughout their careers and were keen to help synchro flourish in WA and look forward to the ongoing development in the years ahead.